

Hospitality New Zealand Business Awards – Media Release

The finalists for the Hospitality New Zealand Awards for Excellence 2024 have been announced and we are pleased to have a Marlborough business included as a finalist.

Juliearna Kavanagh has been honored with a prestigious nomination as a finalist for Accommodation Leader of the Year by Hospitality New Zealand Business Awards for Excellence 2024, specifically recognized for her outstanding leadership at Escape To Picton Boutique Hotel. She is nominated alongside esteemed industry peers Clinton Farley, General Manager of the Hotel Britomart in Auckland, and Hannah Chinnery, Hotel Manager for the Bolton Hotel in Wellington.

These prestigious awards celebrate outstanding achievements in the hospitality industry across New Zealand, honouring excellence in both the accommodation and food and beverage sectors. The winners will be revealed at the glamorous Gala Dinner on 31 July in Christchurch. This event marks the culmination of Hospitality New Zealand's annual two-day conference.

ACCOMMODATION LEADER OF THE YEAR FINALIST

JULIARNA
KAVANAGH

*Finalist for Accommodation
Leader of the year 2024
Excellence in Hospitality Award*